

The Walt Wheeler American Labor History Prize 2020-2021

The American Labor Studies Center is proud to announce the 2020-2021 Walt Wheeler American Labor History Contest in honor of the long time Capital Region labor leader with funds from a memorial fund established in his honor.

- The contest is open to students in grade 7 -12.
- Entries must be a 500 to 750 word essay on a topic relating to the American labor movement or its history.
- The prize will be $200 and a certificate.
- Entries must be submitted no later than March 31, 2021 and mailed to: The Walt Wheeler American Labor History Contest, 18 Crestwood, Clifton Park, NY 12065.
- The winning paper will be posted on the ALSC web site (www.labor-studies.org).

For research on labor go to www.labor-studies.org
